Each team is made up of five contestants and the competition is single elimination format. Players will identify the most popular responses to survey questions posed to 100 county residents. Questions will be general interest as in the original Family Feud show and Sheboygan area specific.

Tickets for the event, just $5 each, will be available at the door from 3:30 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. In keeping with the family-friendly nature of the event, children four and younger can attend for free.

A dinner ticket for $6 can also be purchased at the event; children four and younger dine for free. Dinner includes one trip through the pasta bar including Cavatappi corkscrew pasta, Marinara sauce, Alfredo sauce, grilled chicken and sausage, garlic bread, Caesar salad and a choice of beverage (milk, coffee, water or soda). The dinner will be prepared by Kohler school's own Chef Ted Weidman. Also available ala carte throughout the evening will be cakes courtesy of Amy's Cakes, snack type items like soft pretzels and nachos, and beverages (soda and water courtesy of Lakeside Pepsi).

Monies raised from the Rotary Survey Says... event will fund local and global projects. The club supports local and international projects and has contributed in excess of $600,000 to date. Locally, they have supported: the new Taylor Drive park renovation, Rotary Riverfront Park, Harbor Center Marina promenade, student scholarships, Rebuilding Together, Meals on Wheels; and internationally: polio eradication, equipment to provide safe drinking water, and Shelter Boxes in response to natural disasters. The Sheboygan Rotary Club is Sheboygan area's largest Rotary club with approximately 140 members. The club meets at the Elks Club in Sheboygan every Monday at noon for a buffet luncheon that also includes a business meeting and speaker.
